

I find using cell phones during flight to be a safety concern as people will be talking when they should be paying attention to important safety briefings. Also, I think it opens the way for more disgruntled passengers. Passengers trying to read or sleep do not want the person next to them talking on the phone. We do not need more negative aspects to deal with on the plane. Please do not allow cell phone usage during flight.